MALPRACTICE POLICY AND PROCEDURE FOR TRUST ACADEMY

TRUST ACADEMY treats all cases of suspected malpractice* very seriously and will investigate all suspected and reported incidents of possible malpractice. The purpose of this Policy and Procedure is to set out how allegations of malpractice in relation to all EXAM BOARD qualifications are dealt with. The scope of the policy is to provide:

- a definition of malpractice
- examples of student and centre malpractice and maladministration;
- possible sanctions that may be imposed in cases of malpractice.

*The term 'malpractice' in this policy is used for both malpractice and maladministration.

1 Introduction

1.1 For the purpose of this document 'malpractice' is defined as:

Any act, or failure to act, that threatens or compromises the integrity of the assessment process or the validity of EXAM BOARD qualifications and their certification. This includes: maladministration and the failure to maintain appropriate records or systems; the deliberate falsification of records or documents for any reason connected to the award of [EXAM BOARD] qualifications; acts of plagiarism or other academic misconduct; and/or actions that compromise the reputation or authority of TRUST ACADEMY, or of EXAM BOARD, its centres, officers and employees.

TRUST ACADEMY will report all relevant cases of suspected malpractice to EXAM BOARD, accepting that in certain circumstances EXAM BOARD may act of its own, including imposing sanctions.

2 Malpractice by students

2.1 Some examples of student malpractice are described below. These examples are not exhaustive and all incidents of suspected malpractice, whether described below, will be fully investigated, where there are enough grounds to do so.

- 2.1.1 Obtaining examination or assessment material without authorization.

3 Possible malpractice sanctions

3.1 Following an investigation, if a case of malpractice is upheld, TRUST ACADEMY may impose sanctions or other penalties on the individual(s) concerned. Where relevant we will report the matter to EXAM BOARD, and EXAM BOARD may impose one or more sanctions upon the individual(s) concerned. Any sanctions imposed will reflect the seriousness of the malpractice that has occurred.

3.2 Listed below are examples of sanctions that may be applied to a student, or to a teacher, tutor, invigilator or other officer who has had a case of malpractice upheld against them. Please note that

- i) this list is not exhaustive and other sanctions may be applied on a case-by-case basis
- ii) where the malpractice affects examination performance, EXAM BOARD may impose sanctions of its own

Possible study center sanctions that may be applied to students

- A written warning about future conduct.
- Notification to an employer, regulator or the police.
- Removal from the course.

Possible sanctions that may be applied to teachers, tutors' invigilators, and other officers

- A written warning about future conduct.
- Imposition of special conditions for the future involvement of the individual(s) in the conduct, teaching, supervision or administration of students and/or examinations.

Procedure

4 Reporting a suspected case of malpractice

- 4.1 This process applies to, teachers, tutors, invigilators students and other centre staff, and to any reporting of malpractice by a third party or individual who wishes to remain anonymous.
- 4.2 Any case of suspected malpractice should be reported in the first instance to Mr I Chitunhu, The Head Business School
- 4.3 A written report should then be sent to the person identified in 4.2, clearly identifying the factual information, including statements from other individuals involved and / or affected, any evidence obtained, and the actions that have been taken in relation to the incident.
- 4.4 Suspected malpractice must be reported as soon as possible to the person identified in 4.2, and at the latest within two working days from its discovery. Where the suspected malpractice has taken place in an examination, the incident be reported urgently, and the appropriate steps taken as specified by EXAM BOARD.
- 4.5 Wherever possible, and provided other students are not disrupted by doing so, a student suspected of malpractice should be warned immediately that their actions may constitute malpractice, and that a report will be made to the center.
- 4.6 In cases of suspected malpractice by center teachers, tutors' invigilators and other officers, and any reporting of malpractice by a third party or individual who wishes to remain anonymous, the report made to the person in 4.2 should include as much information as possible, including the following:
- the date time and place the alleged malpractice took place, if known
 - the name of the center teacher/tutor, invigilator or other person(s) involved
 - a description of the suspected malpractice and
 - any available supporting evidence
- 4.7 In cases of suspected malpractice reported by a third party, or an individual who wishes to remain anonymous, TRUST ACADEMY will take all reasonable steps to authenticate the reported information and to investigate the alleged malpractice.

5 Administering suspected cases of malpractice

TRUST ACADEMY

Training...for Excellence!!!

- 5.1 TRUST ACADEMY will investigate each case of suspected or reported malpractice relating to EXAM BOARD qualifications, to ascertain whether malpractice has occurred. The investigation will aim to establish the full facts and circumstances. We will promptly take all reasonable steps to prevent any adverse effect that may arise as a result of the malpractice, or to mitigate any adverse effect, as far as possible, and to correct it to make sure that any action necessary to maintain the integrity of EXAM BOARD qualifications and reputation is taken.
- 5.2 TRUST ACADEMY will acknowledge all reports of suspected malpractice within five working days. All the parties involved in the case will then be contacted within 10 working days of receipt of the report detailing the suspected malpractice. We may also contact other individuals who may be able to provide evidence relevant to the case.

TRUST ACADEMY

Training...for Excellence!!!

- 5.3 The individual(s) concerned will be informed of the following:
- that an investigation is going to take place, and the grounds for that investigation;
 - details of all the relevant timescales, and dates, where known;
 - that they have a right to respond by providing a personal written response relating to the suspected malpractice (within 15 working days of the date of that letter);
 - that, if malpractice is considered proven, sanctions may be imposed either by TRUST ACADEMY or by EXAM BOARD, reflecting the seriousness of the case;
 - that, if they are found guilty, they have the right to appeal.
 - That TRUST ACADEMY has a duty to inform EXAM BOARD and other relevant authorities / regulators, but only after time for the appeal has passed or the appeal process has been completed. This may also include informing the police if the law has been broken and to comply with any other appropriate legislation.
- 5.4 Where more than one individual is contacted regarding a case of suspected malpractice, for example in a case involving suspected collusion, we will contact each individual separately, and will not reveal personal data to any third party unless necessary for the purpose of the investigation.
- 5.5 The individual has a right to appeal against a malpractice outcome if they believe that the policy or procedure has not been followed properly or has been implemented to their detriment.
- 5.6 Records of all malpractice cases and their outcomes are maintained by TRUST ACADEMY for a period of at least five years and are subject to regular monitoring and review.
